

Jon Simons >> fact sheet

NEW MUSIC RELEASE FROM JON SIMONS

title: Seemingly Dreamingly release date: November 5, 2002 genre: Alternative / Indie style of music: mellow, acoustic-based, dreamlike

songwriting: Jon Simons (words and music) instrumentation: acoustic, electric, and bass guitar, drum kit, percussion, organ, piano, strings, vibraphone, male lead vocal, female backing vocals, and more.

unusual facts: Most of the bass guitar on the album was performed by Joshua Zarbo who is the bassist for Merge recording group, Spoon.

In addition to writing all the lyrics and music, Jon Simons also produced, recorded, and co-mixed the album.

Jon co-mixed the album with producer, Mark Hallman, who has worked with such talents as Ani DiFranco, Shawn Colvin, Oasis, and more.

TRACK LIST

- 1 : Sting Called Life
- 2 : Raindrop Collector
- 3 : Dreamless Town
- 4 : Round and Round
- 5 : Can You See Trees?
- 6 : Inside Closed Eyes
- 7 : Tell the Boy
- 8 : Here for a Minute
- 9 : Like the Rain
- 10: From the Flood